ABOUT THE SCHOOL

Big Four Arts Depot is the official school of Anderson Young Ballet Theatre and Academy. Our facilities offer spacious classrooms, dressing rooms and sprung dance floors in a beautifully renovated 1871 Big Four Train Station nestled in downtown Anderson. Enjoy our home and Dance for Joy!

AYBT Academy employs a progressive level approach to teaching the art of dance through techniques in all genres by classically trained, professional instructors. AYBTA students are placed in appropriate levels, starting with Pre-School Levels, Levels 1 through 7. Dancers can audition for our pre-professional ballet company (AYBT, a not-for-profit) which includes levels Junior, Apprentice, Company Levels. Programs are suitable for students with professional aspirations as well as those wishing to pursue dance as a recreational or educational discipline. In both programs, students receive personalized attention and the same high quality of dance education.

A highly respected professional faculty makes AYBT Academy an excellent center of dance training. There are many opportunities for students to gain performing experience with AYBT, hailed the "hidden jewel of Central Indiana." Selected students from the academy (levels 1- Company) may perform in productions of The Nutcracker, Cinderella, Giselle, Coppelia, Sleeping Beauty, The Little Mermaid (to the music of David Arkenstone), Alice in Wonderland, The Legend of MuLan, and many more.

Expectations and Code of Conduct AYBT Academy

-Codes of Conduct

- Anderson Young Ballet Theatre Academy strives to provide a safe and friendly atmosphere and environment for the students/ participants. AYBT Academy prohibits acts of harassment or bullying (by faculty, students, and parents/ adults). Harassment or bullying is conduct that disrupts both a student's ability to learn and the school's ability to provide a safe environment. All faculty, students, and participating parents/ adults, are expected to always demonstrate appropriate behavior and treat others with civility and respect. Gossiping, bullying, aggressive behavior (including intimidating looks and body language) or talking badly about anyone and/or their abilities will not be tolerated. Please report any instances of harassment or bullying to Artistic Director, Jennifer Thiemet and/or the Academy staff. See Chain of Command for concerns below.

Expectations

Timeliness: *All dancers should be at the studio at least 10 minutes before class. This is especially important for tech weeks in the theater. If you know you/your dancer will be late, please call the Academy office or email the office to notify your instructor in advance.

Dress Code

*All dancers must have AYBTA required leotards, are expected to wear them on scheduled days and arrive dressed for class. No warm-ups are allowed unless it is cold in the classroom and only with the permission of the instructor at the time. Hair must be in a nice bun and secured at all times with hair pins before start of class. This includes all classes (jazz, ballet, modern, and tap) unless other instruction is given from specific instructor.

Auditions

The students will be given any audition dates at least 1 week prior to the audition. There will be (minimally) The Academy Director and 1 AYBT faculty member/choreographer of the Academy Director's choice. Once decisions are made, they are final. It is understood that AYBT is an educational facility. As such, the best efforts are made to give as many opportunities as possible to as many dancers as possible per season. Roles will be assigned with this philosophy in mind.

Social media

As a representative of AYBT and AYBTA, any dancer found posting (or being involved in any other's posting) derogatory materials toward AYBT, AYBTA, the staff or fellow dancers will be required to immediately remove the post and may be dismissed from AYBT/AYBTA. Posting music relevant material is considered piracy when music rights are not available, causing possible legal action toward the owner of the post.

Chain of Command for concerns

Should any dancer or parent have a concern involving anything to do with AYBT Academy, the proper chain of command would be to schedule a meeting with AYBT Academy Director, Jennifer Thiemet, by sending an email to schedule a meeting to:

director@aybtacademy.com
